Featured Whitepaper: 'Business Challenges for Enterprises with Hybrid IT Environments'

CIPS

As companies increasingly adopt cloud and face a myriad challenges in supporting employees, partners, and customers in a data-intensive world, their real focus is on the more inclusive concept of hybrid IT. Download this IDC Analyst Connection — an interview with Rick Villars, vice president of IDC's Datacenter and Cloud program, conducted on behalf of CenturyLink's customers — to gain insights on managing critical elements of a hybrid cloud implementation. READ MORE

Immigrants in the Alberta ICT professional workforce Survey closes June 15

CIPS

By 2019, cumulative hiring requirements for ICT talent are expected to be over 17,000 in Alberta. Using recent computing science enrollments in Canada, even if everyone came to Alberta to work, would not be able to fulfill the predicted hiring requirements. READ MORE
