Under the ICT mushroom cloud

IT World Canada

Cyberwarfare is the quiet giant waiting to devour us and particularly enterprises. From the megatrends keynote given at the World Computing Congress, over 90 per cent of networks can be compromised and this can happen in less than 15 minutes. READ MORE

October CIPS Volunteer of the Month: Lucien Peron I.S.P., ITCP

CIPS

We should not lose sight on the fact that CIPS holds the only certification for the IT profession as a whole that is recognized by law by the government of Canada. And that only CIPS in Canada and ACS in Australia — out of approximately 60 other associations — are accredited by IFIP. We should be proud of that fact. READ MORE
